

A photograph of the Milan skyline at sunset, with the sun low on the horizon, casting a warm orange glow over the city. The skyline features several prominent skyscrapers, including the Pirella Göttsche Alinari Tower (Spina 96) and the Allianz Tower. The foreground shows the rooftops and lower buildings of the city, some with lights on. The overall scene is a mix of modern architecture and historic cityscape.

Intermonte Company Profile

Intermonte is one of the leading investment banks in Italy, a point of reference for Italian and international institutional investors in the domestic equity market. It is also a leader in advising retail clients and financial advisors, thanks to its digital channel. The strong focus on the Italian market and the wide range of services dedicated to listed and unlisted companies have consolidated Intermonte's role as a strategic partner for SMEs and investors active in the Italian market.

Intermonte operates in four main areas of activity: Sales & Trading, Global Markets, Investment Banking and Advisory & Digital Division, all supported by a high standing Equity Research team.

The Research Department is firmly positioned at the top of international rankings for the quality of research and offers the widest coverage of the Italian equity market, with a particular focus on mid and small cap companies, thanks to a high degree of sector specialisation. Investment Banking provides services to listed and unlisted companies in extraordinary transactions, including Equity Capital Markets, M&A and Debt Capital Markets. The Sales & Trading and Global Markets team assists Italian and international institutional investors, supporting investment decisions through high-quality research and the expertise of around 40 professionals specialised in different asset classes: equities, bonds, derivatives, ETFs, currencies and commodities. Intermonte Advisory and Management is the division dedicated to asset management and financial advice. Websim is the digital platform specialising in the production of financial content for retail investors, financial advisors and private bankers, with a distinctive editorial offer and exclusive outlooks on markets and investment products.

Since February 2025, Intermonte is part of the Banca Generali Banking Group, further strengthening its position in the Italian financial landscape.
